WALTER KLAGES PRESENTATION – RESEARCH DATA

Walter Klages from Research Data presented the latest visitor profile data:

Estimated Number of Visitors Winter: 2017 120,00, May-June 2017 66,500

Estimated Room Nights Winter: 2017- 242,100, May-June 2017- 133,900

Estimated Direct Expenditures: Winter 2017- $90,282,500, May -June 2017- $45,874,200

Estimated Total Economic Impact Winter: 2017: $140,100,500, May-June 2017 $71,187,600

Chad Truxall asked how the estimated direct expenditures are calculated. Walter Klages explained that there are two ways to calculate the expenditures. He explained that they know the tax rate and tax collection amount of record. They can walk back from that and it will give them the result of visitor expenditures. The other way is the survey they supply, in which they query the visitor on how long they are staying, party size, how much they think they are going to be spending while they are at the destination. They also have post visitation data from the inquiries they leave and address and contact and they take a random sample of the inquiries they follow up contacting by email, phone and they inquire whether they came or they are still coming.

Mike Arman asked if there was a way to address the issue with Airbnb. Walter Klages said yes and no. They are not reporting so they don't have the data they receive from the typical lodging facilities. They look at the inventory of Airbnb and they consider the rates and that gives them a good idea to be able to estimate. They are an important segment and they provide a service. The reporting is poor and that is the best they can do to estimate the contributions to the market.

ADR: Winter $137.25 for May-June 2017 $146.63

RevPAR: Winter 112.86, May-June 2017 $105.85

Party Size Winter 2.4 people, May-June 2017 2.9 people.

Length of stay in NSB area: Winter 4.8 nights, May-June 4.6 nights.

Chad Truxall asked if the people that come to visit by boat are taken into consideration with all the marina development that is going on right now. Walter Klages stated that is part of the data base, but is very small section. He asked Debbie to remind him to present this data on the next meeting.

Walter Klages expressed that events are a major driver of tourism and have a major impact. Sports are another area that is exploding and almost all major destinations are putting significant investments in facilitating them. He encourages visiting Daytona Beach events. These events are important and impactful in bringing people to the destination, making people aware which generates the expenditures. The New Smyrna Beach Area is getting the benefit spillover effect because they are not funding the events but still get the benefit. He encourages to fund these types of events because is a way of showing what the destination has to offer and show people who they are as a destination. Debbie Meihls stated that they do fund special events and they are working on signature events that are larger events that will draw stronger.

The gain from Florida is the people that choose to stay in New Smyrna Beach represented by 37.6%. The previous number was 35% which is very significant.

People are using mobile apps and they are integral to the internet.

Satisfaction is important because a satisfied customer comes back, and he talks and recommends. Word of mouth is very important.

Demographics: 55-59 is the median age of the visitors, May-June it drops and young people are choosing the destination.

Income: $95,000+ is the median. Mike Arman requested a breakout of the Income.

New Smyrna Beach Area has moved up in position to 10-12 from 12-14. The destination is gaining market share, tax revenue growth. Walter Klages recommended grabbing the opportunity.

Kathryn Peterson from ACA asked if they collect bed taxes from boats or boat docking. Debbie Meihls said they are supposed to be collecting them for anybody that lives or stays on the boat.

Kathryn Peterson also asked why the Daytona events were the focus. ACA has big event. Walter Klages said that is what the visitors said.
