SERVICES

We're thrilled that you're considering the picturesque coastal New Smyrna Beach area for your shooting and production operations. You'll find that the area is comprised of welcoming and accommodating communities — all of which understand your specific needs and are ready to roll out the red carpet!

Services

The New Smyrna Beach Area includes the following communities: Edgewater, Oak Hill, Port Orange, Osteen and New Smyrna Beach. From historic downtowns and farms, to beach locations and quaint communities, to various parks and trails, the New Smyrna Beach Area provides a myriad of opportunities to bring your vision to life. With five international airports from as close as 18 miles away, and the proximity to Interstate 95 and Interstate 4, our area is easy to get to and to navigate. Some of our unique features include Old Fort Park, the Canaveral National Seashore, the Atlantic Center for the Arts, world-class surfing and fishing, the Indian River Lagoon, and 17 miles of white, sandy beach that would make the perfect backdrop for any production. New Smyrna Beach also has two main historic downtowns — Canal Street and Flagler Avenue — that give off the perfect quaint, small-town feel.

We know that it takes more than the perfect location to make the perfect scene. If there is any assistance you may need to make your production a success, please feel free to contact the New Smyrna Beach Area Visitor Bureau Film Commission:

FILM PERMITS

Film Permits

As one of the top tourist destinations in Florida, Volusia County attracts a wide range of individuals from across the globe. That diverse audience paired with industry-trained professionals and an array of picturesque locations provides the ideal backdrop for film, commercial and television production. With close proximity to major metros such as Orlando, Tampa and Jacksonville, access to world-class production studios and soundstages are just a short drive away. The New Smyrna Beach Area Visitors Bureau will assist in connecting you with the appropriate organizations for your next film.

We're Here to Help!

It's important to contact the film office prior to any filming activity as we require a film permit to be on file as well as a certificate of insurance. Please allow up to two weeks after the receipt of your completed permit application and insurance to obtain a permit for your production.

To ensure a quick turnaround of your film permit, please:

1. Fill out the application in detail, including dates and times, and be sure to sign.
2. Fill out the Certificate of Insurance (COI) and list the County of Volusia as additionally insured, and/or city where you wish to film.
3. Send both documents to debbie@visitnsbfla.com and danielle@visitnsbfla.com
4. We will review the documents for details and will submit your permit application to the proper authority.
5. We appreciate having a minimum of two weeks to process.
6. Any additional information on the shoot is most helpful and could eliminate many potential questions.

FILMS & TV SHOWS PRODUCED IN THE REGION

Films & TV Shows Produced in the New Smyrna Beach Area

It's always good to know others have already found success shooting and producing in an area. Here is a list of those who have shot or produced in the region in recent years:

The Cooking Channel – “Emeril’s Florida” (2013)

Celebrity chef Emeril Lagasse visited and filmed a segment for his “Emeril’s Florida” show at Goodrich Seafood & Oyster House in Oak Hill, Fla. The renowned chef tasted some of Goodrich’s signature dishes and interviewed Karyn McNamara, Goodrich’s proprietor, as well as Jim Goodrich, who built the restaurant with his father in 1971.

The Travel Channel (2013)

New Smyrna Beach restaurant, The Garlic, was featured on one of the Travel Channel’s shows.

Grace (2014)

Gracie wakes up and finds herself on a Florida beach – 1,100 miles from home. When Gracie is arrested for public drunkenness and assaulting a police officer, she is given a choice: six months in jail or 90 meetings of Alcoholics Anonymous in 90 days that she must do in the small town she’s landed in. The entire film takes place in New Smyrna Beach.

Tomorrowland (2015)

A Walt Disney Pictures science fiction/mystery/adventure film starring George Clooney. In this film, a genius inventor and teenage science enthusiast embark to an alternate dimension known as ‘Tomorrowland.’ Scenes were primarily shot along Canal Street, New Smyrna Beach’s mainland downtown district, and US 1.

Orlando My Way (2016)

Hearst Digital vignettes.
